

Grand Isle County Sheriff's Department 17th Annual R&R Camp July 15-19, 2019

The Grand Isle County Sheriff's Department is pleased to announce the 17th Annual Sheriff's R&R (Respect & Responsibility) Summer Camp. R&R Camp is a 5-day (8:00am– 4:00pm) adventure based program involving team building activities, water activities, and a rope course. R&R Camp emphasizes respect for self and others, and taking responsibility for one's actions. Issues facing young adults and dangers associated with alcohol, drug and tobacco use will be discussed.

Camp is limited to students currently enrolled in 5th through 7th grades who will be age 14 or younger on 7/1/19. Only children that reside full time in Grand Isle County are eligible to attend.

Mandatory final registration and an informational meeting are scheduled for Sunday, July 14, 2019 at 5:00pm at the Folsom School in South Hero. The camper must attend the final registration meeting with a parent or guardian.

The cost of the camp is $50.00 per camper. Breakfast and lunch will be provided daily. Transportation to and from Folsom School will be available at each town's elementary school. The camp will be based out of Folsom School and the campers will travel to various locations via bus to the day's planned activities.

Registration is limited to 50 campers. Camp slots will be filled on a first come-first served basis with a completed Registration Form and payment. Camp usually fills within one week so submit your application as soon as possible. A waiting list will be compiled.

Camp correspondence will be conducted through email. Please provide a valid email on your Registration Form. An information packet and camp schedule will be emailed to all campers prior to the start of camp.

If you have questions concerning the camp, please feel free to contact Lt. Donna Polk or Bridget Campbell of the Grand Isle County Sheriff's Department at 802-372-4482.
